Vias has the genuine charm which is shared by many of the small villages in southern Languedoc, marvel at and soak up the mix of heritage and seaside pleasures...

Here, the Mediterranean has sculpted the beach in the shape of a long cove of fine sand where all your holiday dreams can be fulfilled.

Underneath the parasols, discover the coloured facades of the village; share the local population's enthusiasm for life at the market, in the sunny squares, the cool alleways and along the shaded banks of the Canal du Midi...

Here, you are at one in the Mediterranean world!
