At the heart of the Regional Park, the oak and chesnut trees and the blue-green waters of the Mediterranean, the Pays des Sources is the perfect choice for a holiday destination, far from the cities, the crowds and the noise. A range of new and exciting sensations await you, in this peaceful and temperate climate and true haven of peace and quiet. Overlooking the Orb Valley, perched 400 meters above Lamalou-Les-Bains and Hérépian, the Notre-Dame de Capimont, dedicated to the Virgin Mary, is a haven of peace and quiet in the midst of the old oak trees. A 12th century Roman chapel linked to a 17th century hermitage, this superb monument bears witness to the religious history of neighbouring villages.
