On the shores of the Mediterranean, under the sun of Hérault, Villeneuve Les Maguelone has a lot to offer. Far from the hustle and bustle of the neighbouring seaside resorts, this small Languedoc town has managed to retain its calm, tranquillity and authenticity.

Its proximity to Montpellier, Sète and Palavas-les-Flots makes it an ideal holiday destination. As you approach the coastline, along the banks of the Arnel and Vic ponds, you can discover the flora and fauna between land and sky. Among the 250 species of birds seen here, pink flamingos, terns and herons offer a fascinating and constantly changing spectacle.
