Valras-Plage has all the charm of Deauville and Biarritz. This former fishing village, located at the mouth of the river Orb has kept its charm of yesteryear with its waterfront, its beautiful villas of the turn of the century, its traditional market hall and Casino.

Valras-Plage has become a modern seaside resort with excellent tourist facilities, water oriented activities and lots of events. Away from the usual tourist destinations, Valras-Plage is a lively and harmonious place in which to live or to visit. If fishing and the sea bathing dear to the Dukes of Berry were the wealth of Valras-Plage in the past, it is tourism which allowed the town to develop.
