Residing within a huge and beautiful park in Montpellier, the Domaine d'O is an Historic Monument that provides an outstanding centre for arts and culture. 23 hectares of garden shelter the listed 18th century castle, the recently restored Theatre d'O and a 1800-seat open air amphitheatre.

Since September 2013, a new theatre hall has been completed, thereby enriching that which the Domaine d'O can offer. Built of wood and recyclable materials, featuring retractable seating, this wonderful new Jean-Claude Carrière theatre will open onto the pine forest. With its 600 seat and 1200 standing place capacity, it is a unique, environmentally friendly project.
