Located in the heart of the Hérault valley vineyards, between Gignac and Aniane, this charming wine estate classified as "Monuments historiques" for its authenticity has belonged to the same family since the 15th century.

Marie-Hélène Deltort, the current owner, will be only too pleased to show you the ancient wine making cellar which she re-created in 2003, and to take you to her historical gardens: orangerie, path lined with box trees, landscaped and terraced gardens, including a romanesque Chapel and the family tomb of the founders of the Gignac canal.
