In Languedoc, Domaine des Laux extends from Marseillan to Pomerols, 2 villages of winemaking tradition since Roman times located near Sète and the Thau lagoon.

Here, the respect and the work of wine on a clay and limestone soil has been perpetuated since 4 generations in the Laux family, in an exceptional geographical location between sea and 'garrigue'.

Whether private or professional, your event will take place in the room next to the cellar where the tanks, the wine press, the bottle-filling chain are...

Equipments on-site: a 230 square meters room opening onto a 800 square meters terrace overlooking the vineyards.
