First school in the region totally dedicated to kitesurfing, 'Fil d'Air' combines thrills with safety on the Thau lagoon in a vast, mostly unfrequented area enclosed by a sandbank. This is the ideal place to learn to kitesurf. The school offers formulas for all levels of training: initiation, test sessions, safe navigation. Services include: provision of equipment, supervision by fully qualified and experienced, safety-conscious instructors on a secure vessel with radio communications. The boat features all comforts necessary for enjoyable and effective training, including changing rooms, hot showers, classroom, video...
