Located in the Flaugergues castle, the oldest of Montpellier's 'Folies', the Folia restaurant is the perfect place where to serve the sunny and generous cuisine of its new chef, Damien Fourvel. They strive to offer you a daily-changing menu of market-fresh cuisine. Wines of the estate are served in glass or in bottle. Come and share the pleasures of the beautiful surroundings and the good cuisine at the feet of the 'vénérable' wall overlooking the garden in the hall, or in the terrace's courtyard. And why not start with a wine tasting or continue with a visit to the castle, its gardens or its new wine cellar?
