On board of the 'Diane I', discover fishing and shellfish farming on the Thau lagoon. You will be carried away by the fascinating story of a professional fisherwoman and know all her secrets and working methods. You will have the opportunity to sail in the middle of the famous oyster parks of Bouzigues and thus to immerse yourself in an astonishing natural heritage.

And whatever your project is (wedding, birthday, seminar, evening party...), build with the crew your themed outing on board the Diane I which can be specially privatized for your event.
