Located in a little street near the canal and close to the centre of Sète, the restaurant is a popular 'rendez-vous' for Sétois people and for the many tourists staying on this attractive peninsula where the singer-poet Georges Brassens was born.

'Friends of Georges' is a little bit of Paris on stage ? a reflection of Montmartre in Sète. The show starts with the wonderful songs of Georges Brassens, then continues with other classic French songs of the era. Its decor? Old records, guitars and other instruments on the walls.

Show formula for groups, lunch time and evenings.
