'Méditerranéz-vous' is a language school like no other!

- This is an alternative to books and tapes, with courses based on concrete and active language practice - you'll speak French again and again: with the waiter of the restaurant where we go to eat, and with my friends and neighbours...

You'll discover the real nature of France and the French people, a reality that one can hardly hope to perceive through straightforward tourism.

- To make learning French a pleasure, I've created a friendly environment that allows you to feel relaxed and at home. Classes, limited to just 7 people, are held in the garden over coffee and a croissant.
