Located in Lattes in an idyllic setting overlooking the Méjean natural park, the Robert Michel bull farm is breeding horses and Camargue bulls in the heart of the 'Domaine de Fangouse', former wine estate of the 19th century. It has about fifty horses and nearly 200 bulls all raised in the marshes of Lattes, Lansargues and Viols Le Fort. Want to live a day at the same rhythm of Camargue traditions? See you with the Michel family!
