A landscaped garden of 4 hectares on the many levels of a quarry dating from the Middle Ages and featuring rocks and stones of various hues, Jardin Saint Adrien is planted with almond trees, azeroliers, willows, oleanders, olive trees, palms and pines. Four lakes contribute to the spectacular impact of this site where lawn, broom and pampas grass have replaced wasteland. A cool, summery visit with a touch of magic!

Listed as a 'Remarkable Garden' by the Ministry of Culture. Listed as a 'must-see garden' by Petit Futé guidebook. Elected by the French people as their favorite garden in 2013.
