

SAINT JEAN CHAPEL religious site

Tél : +33 (0)4 67 73 82 36

255, avenue de l'Europe - 34190 LAROQUE

Email : mairie@laroque.fr

Site internet : <http://www.laroque.fr/Patrimoine-Classe>

A castral chapel of the 11th century early romanesque age with: 14th century Gothic features; 19th century painted Descombate decor (tapisserie aspect, symbolic); 1èth century painting of the crucifixion from the Ranc French School and a 12th century romanesque sculpted altar with exceptional paint work. Also features a 12th century high enclosure wall and 14th century ramparts. 19th century silk spinning mill in a medieval village listed as an historic monument and picturesque site.

Annual closing :

Closed from January to June and from 20 September to 31 December (except for prior bookings)

Location : Village location, Causses and valleys

Prices

Groupes : min. 10 pers.

max. 60 pers.

1 free for every 20 paid

Facilities / servicesFacilities :

- Coach parking

Services :

- St Jean chapel is open from July to mid-September (after 'Heritage Days'), every day from 6pm till 7pm

- Guided visit with commentary of the historic village and the St Jean chapel (duration 2 hours) on request

- For school groups, free guided visit on request

Activities / products

average length of time : 2 hours