Between Montpellier and Béziers, Saint Martin de la Garrigue castle watch over 160 hectares of land, a mixture of vines, scrublands, pine forests and olive trees. Steeped in history and memories, the estate is structured around a 9th century romanesque chapel and a 'Renaissance' style castle recently renovated by a renowned international architect. In addition to the seasonal rental of the castle (3 master suits, 5 single rooms, a swimming pool, a tennis court), the visit of the winery and tasting of wines, the castle is ideal for seminar sessions, shooting of films, photos...
